

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): I cannot say. Orders of Government sanctioning the proposals recommended by the Director have been communicated to him.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): Are they new recommendations or similar to those subsisting in regard to this sort of examination?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): No. This year there was a suggestion to appoint a Moderation Board for dealing with hard cases. The Moderation Board was accordingly appointed and they made certain recommendations.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): May I know whether their work at least is completed?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): Everything is completed.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): May I know whether the final list has been published?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): Orders have only to be issued.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): May I know the last date fixed for readmission of those students who have not been successful even in the second list?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): No date has been fixed.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): Does not the member think that the delay causes considerable annoyance to those whose names have not been included in the first list?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): It cannot be helped.

MR. S. KRISHNA PILLAI (Karunagapalli): Does the member therefore state that such delay was peculiar to this year and that it will not be repeated hereafter?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): Yes, it was peculiar only to this year.
